PROCEDURE:

For the application of this Policy the following procedures will apply:

COLLECTION, USE AND DISCLOSURE

Authorised staff will collect and use information about an employee/resident/client during the course of their relationship with Presbyterian Care Tasmania. Staff should be aware of and be able to explain: why, when and how this information may be collected, used and disclosed.

It is important that the information the organisation holds about an employee/resident/client is up to date.

Employees/residents/clients must inform the organisation when any information previously provided has changed.

COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Authorised staff will only collect Personal Information about an individual by fair and lawful means and only if the information is necessary for one or more of the functions required as an aged care provider and collection is necessary to:

- i) comply with the provisions of State or Commonwealth law;
- ii) provide data to Government agencies in compliance with State or Commonwealth law;
- iii) determine eligibility to entitlements provided under any State or Commonwealth law;

PROCEDURE cont:

- iv) provide appropriate services and care;
- v) enable contact with a nominated person regarding a client's health status; and
- vi) lawfully liaise with a nominated representative and to contact family if requested or needed.

Some individuals may not want to provide information to us. In this instance it is important to provide an understanding that, the information staff request is relevant to providing them with the care and services they need. If the individual chooses not to provide some or all of the information requested, we may not be able to provide them with the care and services they require.

Our staff will not collect a client's Sensitive Information (including Health Information) unless the collection of the information is reasonably necessary for or directly related to one or more of our functions and:

- i) the client has consented to the collection of this information; or
- ii) the collection of the information is required to authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order; or
- iii) a permitted general situation exists to the collection of the information; or
- iv) a permitted health situation exists in relation to the collection of the information; or
- v) we are a non-profit organisation and:
 - A. the information relates to our activities; and
 - B. the information relates only to the members of the organisation, or to individuals who have regular contact with us and our activities.

METHODS OF COLLECTION

Personal Information and Sensitive Information (including Health Information), may be collected from:

- i) a client or resident;
- ii) any person or organisation that assesses health status or care requirements, for example the Aged Care Assessment Team;
- iii) the health practitioner of a client or resident;
- iv) other health providers or facilities;
- v) family members or significant persons of a client or resident; and
- vi) a legal advisor of a client or resident.

We will collect Personal Information from the client or resident unless, we:

- i) have the consent of the client or resident to collect the information from someone else; or
- ii) are required or authorised by law to collect the information from someone else; or
- iii) it is unreasonable or impractical to do so.

cont..:

Unsolicited Information

If we receive Personal Information from an individual that we have not solicited and we could not have obtained the information by lawful means, we will destroy or de-identify the information as soon as practicable and in accordance with the law.

Staff records

We must keep a record in respect of staff about:

- i) basic employment details such as the name of the employer and the employee and the nature of their employment (eg. part-time, full-time, permanent, temporary or casual);
- ii) pay;
- iii) overtime hours;
- iv) averaging arrangements;
- i) leave entitlements;
- ii) superannuation contributions;
- iii) termination of employment (where applicable); and
- iv) individual flexibility arrangements and guarantees of annual earnings.

We may also collect Personal Information about a staff member relating to their employment being Employee Records (as defined above).

Notification

We will at or before the time or as soon as practicable after, we collect Personal Information from an individual, take all reasonable steps to ensure that the individual is notified or made aware of:

- i) our identity and contact details;
- ii) the purpose for which we are collecting Personal Information;
- iii) the identity of other entities or persons to whom we usually disclose Personal Information to;
- iv) that our privacy policy contains information about how the individual may complain about a breach of the APPs and how we will deal with a complaint;
- v) whether we are likely to disclose Personal Information to overseas recipients and if so, the countries in which such recipients are likely to be located and if practicable, to specify those countries.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

A. Permitted Disclosure

We may not use or disclose Personal Information for a purpose other than the primary purpose of collection, unless:

- i) the secondary purpose is related to the primary purpose (and if Sensitive Information directly related) and the individual would reasonably expect disclosure of the information for the secondary purpose;
- ii) the individual has consented;

- iii) the information is Health Information and the collection, use or disclosure is necessary for research, the compilation or analysis of statistics, relevant to public health or public safety, it is impractical to obtain consent, the use or disclosure is conducted within the privacy principles and guidelines and we reasonably believe that the recipient will not disclose the Health Information;
- iv) we believe on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to an individual's life, health or safety or a serious threat to public health or public safety;
- v) we have reason to suspect unlawful activity and use or disclose the Personal Information as part of our investigation of the matter or in reporting our concerns to relevant persons or authorities;
- vi) we reasonably believe that the use or disclosure is reasonably necessary to allow an enforcement body to enforce laws, protect the public revenue, prevent seriously improper conduct or prepare or conduct legal proceedings; or
- vii) the use or disclosure is otherwise required or authorised by law.

If we receive Personal Information from an individual that we have not solicited, we will, if it is lawful and reasonable to do so, destroy or de-identify the information as soon as practicable.

B. Cross Border Disclosure

We will not disclose an individual's Personal Information to an overseas recipient. If we do, we will take all steps that are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the overseas recipient does not breach the Australian Privacy Principles, unless:

- i) the overseas recipient is subject to laws similar to the Australian Privacy Principles and the individual has mechanisms to take action against the overseas recipient;
- ii) we reasonably believe the disclosure is necessary or authorised by Australian Law; or
- iii) the individual has provided express consent to the disclosure.

C. Disclosure of Health Information

We may disclose Health Information about an individual to a person who is responsible for the individual if:

- i) the individual is incapable of giving consent or communicating consent;
- ii) the service manager is satisfied that either the disclosure is necessary to provide appropriate care or treatment or is made for compassionate reasons or is necessary for the purposes of undertaking a quality review of our services (and the disclosure is limited to the extent reasonable and necessary for this purpose); and
- iii) the disclosure is not contrary to any wish previously expressed by the individual of which the service manager is aware, or of which the service manager could reasonably be expected to be aware and the disclosure is limited to the extent reasonable and necessary for providing care or treatment.

A person responsible is a parent, a child or sibling, a spouse, a relative, a member of the individual's household, a guardian, an enduring power of attorney, a person who has an intimate personal relationship with the individual, or a person nominated by the individual to be contacted in case of emergency, provided they are at least 18 years of age.

cont...:

ACCESS

You have a right to request that we provide you access to the Personal Information we hold about you (and we shall make all reasonable attempts to grant that access) unless providing access is:

- i) frivolous or vexatious;
- ii) poses a serious threat to the life or health of any individual;
- iii) unreasonably impacts upon the privacy of other individuals;
- iv) jeopardises existing or anticipated legal proceedings;
- v) prejudices negotiations between the individual and us;
- vi) be unlawful or would be likely to prejudice an investigation of possible unlawful activity;
- vii) an enforcement body performing a lawful security function asks us not to provide access to the information; or
- viii) giving access would reveal information we hold about a commercially sensitive decision making process.

Requesting Access

Requests for access to information can be made orally or in writing and addressed to the service manager of the relevant service. We will respond to each request within a reasonable time.

Declining Access

An individual's identity should be established prior to allowing access to the requested information. If unsatisfied with the individual's identity or access is requested from an unauthorised party, we can decline access to the information.

We can also decline access to information if:

- I) there is a serious threat to life or health of any individual;
- II) the privacy of others may be affected;
- III) the request is frivolous or vexatious;
- IV) the information relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings; or
- V) the access would be unlawful.

We will provide in writing the reasons for declining access to the requested information.

Granting Access

On request (and after determining an individual's right to access the information) we should provide access to Personal Information.

Charges for Access

If we charge for providing access to Personal Information, those charges will not be excessive.

PERSONAL INFORMATION QUALITY

We aim to ensure that the Personal Information we hold is accurate, complete and up-to-date. Please contact us if any of the Personal Information you have provided to us has changed. Please also contact us if you believe that the information we have about you is not accurate, complete or up-to-date.

cont..:

CORRECTION

If an individual establishes the Personal Information held about them is inaccurate, incomplete, out-of-date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading we must take reasonable steps to correct the information.

If we disagree with an individual about whether information is accurate, complete and up-to-date, and the individual asks us to associate with the information a statement claiming that the information is inaccurate, incomplete, out-of-date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading we must take reasonable steps to do so.

If we refuse to correct the Personal Information as requested by the individual, we will give the individual written notice that sets out:

- i) the reasons for the refusal, except to the extent that it would be unreasonable to refuse;
- ii) the mechanisms available to complain about the refusal; and
- iii) any other matter prescribed by the regulations.

DIRECT MARKETING

Personal Information

We will not use or disclose Personal Information about an individual for the purposes of direct marketing, unless the information is collected directly from you and:

- i) you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose your Personal Information for the purpose of direct marketing; and
- ii) we have provided you a means to 'opt-out' and you have not opted out.

Sensitive Information

We will not use or disclose Sensitive Information about an individual for the purposes of direct marketing, unless the individual has consented to the information being used for direct marketing.

An individual's rights in relation to direct marketing activities

If we use information for the purposes of direct marketing the individual may:

- i) ask us not to provide direct marketing communications to us
- ii) ask us not to disclose or use the information
- iii) ask us to provide the source of the information.

PERSONAL INFORMATION SECURITY

We are committed to keeping secure the Personal Information you provide to us. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure the Personal Information we hold is protected from misuse, interference, loss, from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

cont...:

Information of a Client or Resident

- i) We must keep the records of a client or resident in a secure storage area.
- ii) If the records are being carried while providing care only the staff member carrying the records will have access to them.
- iii) Records of previous clients and residents and earlier unused volumes of current clients or residents shall be archived and stored in a locked service away from general use.
- iv) Only health professionals attending to the care of a client or resident are to have access to information of the client or resident. All records shall only be used for the purpose it was intended.
- v) A client or resident, or their representatives shall be provided access to records as requested and after consultation with the service manager. At these times, a qualified staff member is to remain with a client or resident or representative to facilitate the answering of any questions raised.
- vi) Details of a client or resident are not to be provided over the phone, unless the staff member is sure of the person making the inquiry. If in doubt, consult the service manager.
- vii) No staff shall make any statement about the condition or treatment of a client or resident to any person not involved in the care except to the immediate family or representative of the client or resident and then only after consultation with the service manager.
- viii) All staff must be discrete with their comments at all times, protecting and respecting the privacy, dignity and confidentiality of all clients and residents.
- ix) Handovers shall be conducted in a private and confidential manner.

Security measures

Our security measures include, but are not limited to:

- (i) training our staff on their obligations with respect to your Personal Information;
- (ii) use of passwords when accessing our data storage system;
- (iii) the use of firewalls and virus scanning tools to protect against unauthorised interference and access;

We will, as soon as practicable and in accordance with the law, destroy or de-identify any Personal Information that is no longer required for our functions.

MEDIA

No member of staff shall make any statement to the press, radio or television station or to any reporter for the media.

If a staff member is approached to make a statement or comment they must refer the person to our Marketing Manager or the Chief Executive Officer.
